

Kyudo:

The Japanese Art of Archery

Second Sunday of the month
11:00 AM

Developed by the samurai and rich with ceremony, Kyudo is the elegant method of shooting the traditional Japanese bow and arrow. Participants will practice a variety of postures and movements, and learn how to draw the bow and shoot it with emphasis on technique.

About the Instructor

No Experience Required • Donations Welcome

Bill Reid is the president and chief instructor of the Virginia Kyudo Renmei, which was founded in 2001. Bill is Vice President of the American Kyudo Renmei, and an Auditor of the International Kyudo Renmei. Bill holds the rank of 5th dan and is a student of Dan DeProspero, Renshi, 6th dan, of Apex, North Carolina.

